

Algonquins of Pikwakanagan First Nation

Post-Secondary Education Program Policy and Procedures

Post-Secondary Education Sponsorship may be provided within the limits of available funds, to eligible students accepted for enrollment in Public Programs of Study.

When necessary policy changes occur, a memorandum of such changes will be posted on the First Nation Website at www.algonquinsofpikwakanagan.com. Education Services will notify students who are currently being Sponsored.

Ultimately, it is the student's responsibility to ask for current information regarding Sponsorship.

Mission Statement

The intention of this Algonquins of Pikwakanagan First Nation Post-Secondary Policy is to help its' eligible members gain access to Public Post-Secondary Education in a fair and equitable manner, and; to graduate with qualifications and skills necessary to pursue individual careers.

RESTRICTIONS ON SPONSORSHIP

- All Sponsorship is subject to the availability of funds (Because Sponsorship funding provided to the First Nation is usually insufficient to satisfy all applications received.)
- Incomplete applications will not be considered
- Study at Private Institutions is not sponsored
- Fast Tracking is not sponsored
- On-Line programs are not sponsored
- Programs less than 8 months or 32 weeks are not sponsored
- Any change in a student's Program of Study requires prior written consent of the Manager, Education Services

LEVELS OF EDUCATION SPONSORED

Sponsorship may be provided for three Levels of Education:

UCEP University/College Entrance Preparation/Prerequisite Programs
(i.e. Pre-Health, etc.) – One Year Only Program Requirement

Level I - Community College Certificate or Diploma – One to Three Years

Level II - University Undergraduate Programs – Three to Four Years

Approved sponsorship will support one (1) continuous Program of Study at each Level of Education; and will be completed within the timeframe set by the Institution and approved Sponsorship.

PRIORITY SYSTEM

Our Priority System is designed to provide fair and equitable access to limited Post-Secondary Sponsorship.

CONTINUING STUDENTS:

Priority 1 - Students in Level I and Level II who were successful in meeting the standard requirements in the preceding academic year and students who were approved for medical withdrawal have to submit a completed renewal application by the due date (May 15)

SECONDARY STUDENTS:

- Priority 2 -
- (a) Secondary students whose applications were deferred from the previous year due to lack of funds.
 - (b) Secondary School students who have graduated in the previous academic year, and who have submitted a deferral letter and were approved by the Manager, Education Services by the specified due date;
 - (c) Current year secondary school graduates

MATURE STUDENTS:

- Priority 3 -
- (a) Mature students whose applications were deferred from the previous year due to lack of availability of funds.
 - (b) New mature student applications

PART TIME STUDENTS:

Priority 4 - Part -Time students.

RETURNING STUDENTS:

Priority 5 - Students returning to Public Post-Secondary Education who withdrew because of academic failure or after having withdrawn voluntarily must demonstrate initiative to have furthered their studies on their own. Each case will be reviewed on an individual basis. Students must reapply for sponsorship and provide all required documentation as a new applicant by the due date.

post.secondary@pikwakanagan.ca or 1-866-841-8900 to provide a monthly update.

Failure to comply with the Important Deadlines may result in your funding being put on hold and/or loss of Sponsorship.

MAINTAINING ELIGIBILITY

A student approved for Institution Sponsorship must maintain their eligibility status for continued Sponsorship by adhering to the following:

1. Maintain their approved funded status of Full Time or a Part Time student, as defined by the Institutions for the full academic year (i.e. number of courses).
2. Provide Education Services with a completed Confirmation of Enrollment Form and Release of Information Form before any Full Time Living Expenses are released for the second month of study in the current academic year.
3. Maintain contact with the Post-Secondary Counsellor by providing information on his/her current address, respond to e-mails, phone calls, letters, faxes, and provide report of grades by the DUE DATES. Failure to do so could result in Sponsorship being withheld and/or loss of Sponsorship.
4. Attend all scheduled classes/labs/tutorials, prepare for class by doing homework, reading assignments, placements; and be diligent in submitting all assignments on time, and completing all tests and exams.
5. When experiencing difficulty in his/her Field of Study must contact the Post-Secondary Counsellor before he/she is in jeopardy of failing, dropping out, or being put on academic probation.
6. Meet the Institutions' passing requirements, in order to maintain their continued Sponsorship (i.e. passing mark).
7. Students who are in jeopardy of not meeting the Institution passing requirements may be placed on Academic Probation for the next semester based on individual circumstances.
8. Students who withdraw from Level II studies to undertake Level I studies, drop in Priority status, and may or may not receive Sponsorship depending on the availability of funding.
9. A Continuing Student may receive Sponsorship for Level II Studies after successful completion of UCEP and/or Level I studies, in their CONTINUOUS approved Program of Study, if funding is available.

CHANGING YOUR PROGRAM OF STUDY

A change in the student's Program of Study will affect his/her continued Sponsorship. Therefore, to ensure no negative impact upon continued Sponsorship, please contact the Manager, Education Services, prior to any change.

ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Education Services reserves the right to request attendance records from the Program Co-ordinator/Instructors. Allowances may be withheld.

Exceptions may be made for absences due to Medical Reasons, and must be certified by a medical professional and approved by the Manager, Education Services.

INELIGIBILITY & OVERPAYMENTS:

A Student may become ineligible for continued Sponsorship for several reasons:

1. INELIGIBILITY

- Unauthorized withdrawal from his/her registered Program of Studies;
- Failure to maintain Full Time/Part Time Student status; (Fraud)
- Academic failure;
- Chronic Absenteeism

2. OVERPAYMENTS

- Received an overpayment for expenditure(s) for which they were not eligible
- Non-payment of debt due to acceptance of an ineligible expense (such as living allowance, tuition fees, books & supplies, travel)
- who is in any financial debt to the First Nation, will be eligible to re-apply for Sponsorship when all of his/her debt is paid;
- fails to officially withdraw from any course before the Institution deadline and Education Services cannot be reimbursed for tuition or textbook, this may not apply if the student withdraws for medical reasons (supporting documentation must be supplied to the Manager, Education Services)

Please note that if the student has done any of the above mentioned when the student rectifies their situation and wishes to re-apply they will drop in Priority status.

WITHDRAWAL

When a student decides to withdraw from his/her studies before the Institution's deadline for withdrawal and the Institution will not refund the pre-paid cost of Tuition, Books & Supplies for that Program. The student becomes fully responsible for repayment of those costs to the First Nation.

CONDITIONS OF WITHDRAWAL

A student may choose, or due to unforeseen circumstance to withdraw from his/her Studies, the student must:

- if at the start of your program you feel THE PROGRAM is not appropriate for you, please call and discuss immediately with Education Services, as to avoid any potential costs to you and the First Nation

- adhere to the Institution's Withdrawal Deadline date (if applicable);
- explain the situation in writing to the Manager, Education Services; who will decide how the circumstances will affect future eligibility for Sponsorship (in this respect, please note the Institution cannot authorize withdrawal)

Students returning to Public Post-Secondary Education who withdrew because of academic failure or after having withdrawn voluntarily must demonstrate initiative to have furthered their studies on their own. The Manager, Education Services will consider the merit and circumstances of each case on an individual basis.

WITHDRAWAL FOR MEDICAL REASONS

The student shall immediately provide, to the Manager, Education Services a medical professional certified statement that the student is physically/mentally unable to continue his/her Studies. Upon return to his/her Studies, a medical professional certified statement must be provided to the Manager.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The Algonquins of Pikwakanagan First Nation, Education Services are responsible for ensuring the confidentiality of information on file for all students. This information will not be released to anyone without the students consent in writing.

Any person acting on behalf of a student over 18 years of age must provide a written consent from the student and will apply ONLY if the student is unable to contact us directly, i.e. illness, injury or incapacitation. Otherwise, all communication will be between the student and Education Services.

APPEAL PROCESS

To ensure fairness and equitable treatment under the policy, the Algonquins of Pikwakanagan First Nation Education Services have established the following appeal process. When decisions made by the Manager, Education Services are appealed, the following process is followed:

1. The student or applicant will present his/her case in writing to the Chairperson/ Portfolio Holder of the Standing Committee of Council for Education and Cultural Development. The Chairperson will add the issue to the next regular meeting of the Standing Committee or decide if a special meeting is required.
2. The student or applicant will be notified by the Chairperson of the Standing Committee of Council for Education and Cultural Development, in writing, via e-mail and regular postal mail of the date and time for the meeting when his/her case will be presented. The student or applicant has the option of being present or having a representative attend on his/her behalf. A letter of consent must be provided to the person who will be representing the student.
3. All written documentation on the case will be provided to the Standing Committee of Council for Education and Cultural Development.
4. The Standing Committee of Council for Education and Cultural Development, after hearing evidence from all parties, may render its decision in private, and provide that decision in written format to the Chairperson of the Committee. The Chairperson will notify the applicant of the Committee decision.
5. If the student or applicant is not satisfied with the decision of the Standing Committee of Council for Education and Cultural Development, he/she can appeal to the Executive Director of the Algonquins of Pikwakanagan First Nation. The decision of the Executive Director will be final.

There is no appeal against refusal of assistance due to unavailability of funds.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SPONSORSHIP

The Sponsored student must meet the Public Post-Secondary Institutions’ passing requirements, in order to maintain their continued Sponsorship. This applies to full-time and part-time student status as approved.

This Sponsorship allows for:

- Canadian rates, based on Ministry approved Public Post-Secondary Education, for actual Tuition costs, including Student fees, paid directly to the Institution.
 - Funding for Books & Supplies in the form of a Purchase Order to the campus Bookstore, not to exceed the amount estimated for the program, as provided in information from the Public Post- Secondary Institution upon application.
 - Return Travel costs to campuses more than 100 Kilometers away from the student’s usual place of residence, twice per year, by most economical means.
 - An Allowance for Living Expenses for Full Time Students only, is released on the last business day of each month* in advance of each month of study in the Academic Year by Direct Deposit.
- * The exception is April when allowances will not be released before the first business day of that month, due to our fiscal year-end.

Note: Release of this Allowance may be withheld at any time, without prior notice, for failure to comply with the conditions of this Sponsorship.

This Sponsorship does not allow for:

- Reimbursement for initial application fee to a Public Post-Secondary Institution or the cost of obtaining transcripts
- Reimbursement for photocopying, fines for overdue library books, or field trips
- Funds for the purchase of computers, cell phones, filing cabinets, typewriters, campus clothing and/or book bags, or any items not specifically required by the Program of Study
- This sponsorship does not allow for payment of bus passes, U-passes & parking passes.
- Blanket coverage of any or all debt you may incur during your course of study, which includes a lease for accommodations.

Withdrawal:

If extreme absenteeism and/or fraudulent actions cause you to withdraw from your studies, you will be held financially liable for the costs expended for your Post-Secondary Education by Education Services. As a result, you will be required to:

- Repay the total amount paid for Tuition for your program for your last Term of enrollment
- Repay any/all of Allowance for Living Expense amounts issued for the months affected

These conditions may not apply if you must withdraw for Medical Reasons. However, in this case, you will be required to provide a medical professional certified statement that confirms this claim.

Expectations:

This Sponsorship is a valuable and an increasingly rare award – and it should not be taken for granted. By agreeing to these Terms and Conditions, you are agreeing to respect our faith in your ability to succeed and to be respectful to your Public Post-Secondary Institution. By attending your classes regularly, being punctual, being prepared for your classes, by doing your assigned homework, handing in your assignments on time, being present for all your tests & exams, as required. To complete the Program of Study within the Public Post-Secondary Institution scheduled timeframe as approved by Education Services.

You must agree to keep Education Services informed as to ANY changes in your contact information, or in your personal life that may influence your studies, and to keep in regular contact with us so that we may assist you in getting any help that you may need. You are also expected to contribute to your own Post-Secondary Education by providing your own funds for the costs of moving to campus, such as rent deposit, utility hook-up, grocery staples, computer & accessories, etc.

Remember this application form must be completed on an annual basis.

I HAVE READ THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND AGREE TO COMPLY WITH THEM IN ORDER TO BE ELIGIBLE FOR THIS SPONSORSHIP.
